

MarCom Specialist — evonDex.net

Compensation: up to USDT500~1000/month (pay in EVDEX equivalent)

Type: Full-time (or part-time negotiable)

Location: Remote

Reports to: Marketing Manager

About the Role

evonDex is looking for a Marketing Communications (MarCom) Specialist to own our brand voice, grow our community, and drive visibility across crypto-native channels. You'll be the frontline of our communications — from daily social posts to campaign launches and media outreach.

Key Responsibilities

- Manage and grow social channels (Twitter/X, Telegram, Discord, LinkedIn)
- Write and publish content: announcements, threads, blogs, press releases
- Engage and moderate community across Telegram and Discord
- Plan and coordinate AMAs, campaigns, partnerships, and listings announcements
- Pitch and maintain relationships with crypto media and KOLs
- Maintain brand consistency across all touchpoints
- Track engagement metrics and report on campaign performance

Requirements

- 1–3 years in marketing/communications (crypto/Web3 strongly preferred)
- Excellent written English (additional languages a plus)
- Deep familiarity with Crypto Twitter, Telegram, and Discord culture
- Portfolio of campaigns, threads, or content samples
- Self-starter able to work remotely and async
- Available for occasional AMAs / community events across time zones

Nice to Have

- Experience with DeFi or DEX projects
- Basic design skills (Canva, Figma)
- Existing media/KOL contacts in crypto
- Understanding of tokenomics and Web3 growth loops

What We Offer

- 500,000 EVXC per month
- Remote, Work from Home
- Direct collaboration with founding team
- Growth path as evonDex scales
